1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Goodnight, Jr. et al (U.S. Patent No. 4091120).

Goodnight, Jr. et al discloses preparation of a soy bean slurry from soy flour wherein the concentration of soybean is as called for in the claims and wherein the pH of the slurry is adjusted as set forth in the instant claims and the resulting slurry is passed through an ultrafiltration membrane, inherently polymeric, having a cutoff and employing the processing temperature as claimed and recovering the retentate containing the soy protein which is inherently deflavored taking into account the similarity in processing between the instant invention and that of Goodnight, Jr. et al (see cols. 2-4; examples). Goodnight, Jr. et al also discloses collecting the permeate as well (see Example 1).

2. Claim 10-25 are allowed.

3. Claim 9 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art of record neither discloses nor teaches the particular steps of recycling the renetate and in conjunction with the recycling water as specifically set forth in the instant claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
